Madrid, March 8. N. S.

THE Duke of Oſſuna arrived here lately from Andaluſia, to deſire of the Duke of Anjou a Reinforcement of Troops for the better Security of that Province; whereupon Orders were given, That ſome new Levies, which are making at Oſſuna and Ubeda, ſhould be ſent thither. The Duke of Berwick having aſſembled his Troops near Albacete, has put them into Quarters between that Town and Murcia. The Confederates have likewiſe drawn their Army together in the Neighbourhood of Xativa, and are ready to take the Field.

Milan, March 15. Every thing being now ſettled for evacuating our Caſtle, the Gariſon is to march out the 20th by one of the Gates, and the Imperialiſts are to enter the Place at the ſame time by another. The French Troops there, together with thoſe which are in Gariſon at Valenza and Final, are to march together to Suza: Thoſe at Mantua and Mirandola are to march to the French Frontiers by another Route; and the French Troops at Cremona and Sabionetta are to take a third Road: So that marching thus by different Ways, they may be ſubſiſted with greater Eaſe and Conveniency, which is to be done at the Expence of the Inhabitants of this Dutchy. The Spaniſh and Italian Troops in thoſe Gariſons are to be at Liberty either to enter into the Pay of the Allies, to return to their reſpective Dwellings, or to continue in the Service of the Duke of Anjou. Thoſe that make Choice of the latter are to retire to Naples. The Duke of Savoy has taken Poſſeſſion of the Town of Alexandria and its Territory, and will do the like of Valenza and Final as ſoon as thoſe Places are evacuated.

Lemberg, March 3. The Great Council of the Nobility of Poland continues to ſit in this Place; and ſeveral of the Chief Officers of the Crown Army are lately arrived here, who have aſſured that Aſſembly of their Reſolution, and that of the Troops under their Command, to adhere ſtedfaſtly to their Intereſt; and to encourage them, Orders have been iſſued to the Crown Treaſurer to pay a conſiderable Sum of Money to thoſe Troops, in part of the Arrears that are due to them. The Czar of Muſcovy is preparing to march ſhortly from Zolkiow towards the Poliſh Pruſſia. They write from Lithuania, That Prince Wieſnowiski, who commands the Forces of that Dutchy, has lately gained ſome Advantage over a Detachment of Swediſh Troops. A Fire happened lately at Samogitia, which conſumed a great part of that City.

Cracow, March 19. The Diet of this Palatinate is ſummoned to meet here the 29th Inſtant, in purſuance of the Reſolutions taken by the Great Council at Lemberg, to chuſe Deputies for the General Diet, which is to meet at Lublin, to ſettle the Affairs of this Kingdom. General Beme is lately come to our Suburbs with a Body of 2000 Muſcovites under his Command, and has given Orders for the erecting in this City a great Magazine of Proviſions for the Subſiſtence of their Troops. A Body of about 7000 Muſcovites is advanced towards Kaliſch.

Vienna, March 15. Baron Falkenſtein, the Abbot of Kempten's Plenipotentiary, received yeſterday from the Emperor the Inveſtiture of that Fief. Several others of the Nobility of Hungary are ſhortly expected from thence, to confer with the Miniſters at this Court upon the Means to be uſed to renew the Negociations for compoſing the Troubles in that Kingdom. The Imperial Troops commanded by General Rabutin continue in Quarters of Refreſhment upon the Frontiers of Stiria, where they are making ſome Lines, to ſecure that Province from the Excurſions of the Malecontents. The latter continue before Leopolſtad; and to divert General Rabutin from attempting the Relief of that Place, endeavoured to make an Incurſion into Moravia, but found the Paſſes ſo well guarded, that they were obliged to retire with Loſs; and three Imperial Regiments of Horſe, with about 2000 Raſcians, are ſent to ſuccour Leopolſtad. Count Caroli, with a Body of Malecontents, has poſſeſſed himſelf of the Fort of Czonad, after a Siege of 6 Days; during which time the Gariſon, which conſiſted but of 100 Raſcians, made a very brave Defence: He had granted them very honourable Terms; but, contrary thereto, perſwaded as many as he could to enter into the Service of the Malecontents, and diſarmed and plundered the reſt; after which he razed the Fort. Letters from Tranſilvania confirm the Accounts we have had of a conſiderable Victory gained, tho' with a very unequal Force, by Baron Tige over the Malecontents in that Principality; and add, that he afterwards marched to Hermanſtad, where he arrived the 13th paſt.

Letters from Italy, which came in yeſterday, ſay, the French Troops were preparing to retire out of that Country, in purſuance of the late Agreement for that purpoſe; by which the Imperialiſts are to take Poſſeſſion of Mantua. Letters from Paris of the 28th paſt give an Account, That a Party of 30 Men being come out of the Gariſon of Aeth, and marching in ſeparate Companies of 3 or 4 in each, the better to prevent a Diſcovery, came into the Neighbourhood of Paris, and between that City and Marly ſeized the Marquis de Beringhen, Maſter of the Horſe to the French King; and 8 of them undertook to carry him off, and had actually proceeded homewards as far as Peronne; but being diſcovered near that Place, they were ſeized, and the Marquis was ſet at Liberty. The Duke de Noailles was gone from Paris towards Rouſſillon, being appointed to head the French Troops on that ſide. Monſieur Chamillard was ſet out for Dunkirk, to viſit that Gariſon, and the other French Frontier Towns in the Netherlands.
